

56 FBI Field Offices & Special Agent / Assistant Director in Charge of Each

About the Field Offices

The FBI has 56 field offices (also called divisions) centrally located in major metropolitan areas across the U.S. and Puerto Rico. They are the places where we carry out investigations, assess local and regional crime threats, and work closely with partners on cases and operations. Each field office is overseen by a special agent in charge, except our offices in Los Angeles, New York City, and Washington, D.C., which are headed by an assistant director in charge due to their large size. Within these field offices are a total of about 350 resident agencies located in smaller cities and towns. Resident agencies are managed by supervisory special agents.
